"Our son wanted to learn to drive a manual transmission motor vehicle. Not only are manual vehicles difficult to find, but instructors prepared to teach this dying skill are few and far between. Ned is one of the few and was perfect. His skill and teaching ability, coupled with patience and a sense of humour made the lessons enjoyable. Our son returned from each one with confidence and enthusiasm. He has passed his practical test with flying colours which Ned ensured he would be ready for. We can't recommend Ned highly enough."

"Ned Music is a fantastic teacher and genuine human who is keen to share his skills and help others to improve. Very trustworthy & professional, while also kind, patient & well humoured during lessons. As a mature learner with over a decade of driving experience, Ned helped me improve my manual driving skills with no judgement whatsoever. Now I'm happy to say I've started driving small manual trucks comfortably at work after only a few lessons! Definitely recommend his services to anyone looking to learn or improve their skills."
